Class History

The Class of '61 has entered and left the confines of the Everett High School. We have taken with us, in no small measure, many grand memories and a true feeling of progress and accomplishment.

Perhaps it would be wise to touch lightly on our first year as a real class in the ninth grade of the Albert N. Parlin School. We found that we had stability and good representation in our first election by choosing: John Erickson, President; Louise Barbato, Vice President; Mary DiGregorio, Secretary; and Susan LaBella, Treasurer. These and other names were to high-light our march through high school.

We hated the strict regimentation of the Parlin just as all other previous classes had before us, but like our elders we now realize the necessity for it. We attended discipline classes the same as others, belonged to the "E" club as charter members of our class, and made life as miserable for the traffic squad as any one else.

We started our social life here by attending those wonderful afternoon dancing classes. Girls began to look at boys in just a little different light and not quite as monsters but as rather interesting specimens of humanity. Boys almost stopped insulting the girls and bumping their books out of their arms at times. We found that we had some real talent in our athletes, our dramatic stars, our orators, and in general, we were a pretty good group.

Parlin Day was the climax to our stay and the struggles to receive the coveted Parlin "P" were over with. Twenty two members of our class were recipients of the award and won our applause for their ability.

On a beautiful September Day in '58 we made our entrance into the High School. With fear, trepidation, and bewilderment we wandered aimlessly about for about a week before we discovered where we were. We were shoved, buffeted, pushed, ridiculed, and embarrassed by all the upper-classmen. We searched on the third floor for the gymnasium and could not find an elevator in sight.

We managed to gather our wits about us, and at the first opportunity returned the same officers to represent us with the exception of Lorraine D'Angelo who was elected Vice President. We found we had added representation in the School Council and sent Mary Monahan, Phyllis Ross, and Phyllis Homer in to this circle to fight our battles for us.

Gradually we found out that we were more than tolerated, we were wanted. Our athletes, Rennie DiLoreto, Andy Stallworth, Jack Erickson, Ronnie Boudreau, Joe Venuti and a host of others gave notice that we had what it took. Dora Coish was our Science Award Winner while Judy Cordeau and Phyllis Ross kept us spellbound with their oratory. Little did we realize that when we assembled one day that the future President of the United States was going to address us. Yes, John F. Kennedy was our guest. We found our class had a million and one hidden talents and we were proud of each and every member.

Somehow we survived the year and became middle classmen. At once we assumed the roll of guides to the incoming Sophomores and made life as miserable for them as possible. We followed our judgement of the previous years and returned the same officers with the exception of Irene Pagliuca who was the new Treasurer. New faces appeared to represent us on the Council in the persons of John Durant, Charles Boy, and Janet DiGregorio. Our stella athletes added out-standing performers to their ranks in the persons of Billy Giuliano, Harvey Karp, Gus Ciulla, Dave Mackenzie, and Armando Leo. Hockey was rejuvenated at Everett and we found the backbone of the team to be members of our class. Who could forget the great play of Tony Luongo, Steve Kimball, Don Pratt, and Orlando Nicolai. That was the year that Craig Flaherty won the Oratorical Contest after a close contest with Judy Cordeau.

The year seemed to move a little faster than our previous one and before we knew it Spring was here and it was Junior Prom time. We were pretty much "shook up" by all this, inasmuch as it was our first real formal and our first and last real High School Junior Prom. How so much beauty and poise could be gathered in one group of girls was the unanswered question of the night. These fair young ladies on the arms of those stalwart young men in rented tuxedos was a cause for nervousness. Joy, frolic, and fun soon overcame all signs of nervousness and "Rhapsody in Blue" became a night never to be forgotten. Our Queen for the Prom was Ann Cosco on the arm of her bashful King, Eddie Mattuchio.

The talent show came and went and the Class of '60 was graduated. For a few short weeks we became king of the roost. Dick Hudson received the Harvard Book Award at the final assembly of our Junior year.

Our Senior year and the pinnacle of success! We looked down our noses at those poor sophomores and raised our sophisticated eyebrows at the meddlesome juniors. We were determined to make this the best year of all. We elected Craig Flaherty as President, Lorraine D'Angelo as Vice President, Susan LaBella as Secretary, and Leonard Nicosi as Treasurer. We sent Charles Boy as Vice-Chairman to the School Council with the able assistance of Camille DeAngelis, Louise Barbato, Pilar Cofrades, and Rinaldo DiLoreto.

Our athletic seasons were in good taste with our class performance and we were well represented in all sports. This was to be a year of big events: two days off for the hurricane, then the school caught fire and we had another day off. An open winter was predicted so we had two more days off in December for the biggest snow storm in history for December and then we found that in January we had the worst blizzard in a hundred years and this meant more time off. We were doing big things! Then we also had our boycott of the lunchroom. Orderly and in keeping with our dignity. We won our point and for the first time in the history of the school our recess privileges were extended.

John Capuano, aided by Maryanne Yahoo-dick, Janet DiGregorio, John Durant, and Joyce Overlan were our leaders in producing our yearbook as Dave Savage ran wildly about snapping pictures. Pictures were taken, we were measured for caps and gowns and time was rushing by. Dora Coish was our Football Queen and at the Yearbook Dance, Cynthia Rossi was chosen as Queen of the Yearbook. John Erickson was chosen to represent us in the Good Government Day.

The Senior Ball and our final night of grandeur. The girls and boys all looked wonderful and brilliant in their formal attire. This was a night to be remembered by all. We danced and dined til the wee hours and this was the gala event of our lives.

All too soon it drew to a close and we found our Yearbooks were here, Class Day was upon us, and the end of the road was at hand. Graduation and our High School Days were over.

There has been a wonderful bond of friendship among our classmates which must prevail forever. Many of us will never see each other again on the face of this mortal earth, but we will always be together in the true spirit of the Class of '61. No matter what our calling may be in life, no matter where destiny may see fit to lead us, we will always march shoulder to shoulder down the highway of life with our heads held high and blaze upon every horizon of the universe those teachings of the home, the church, and the school we have so dearly loved. We will preserve for our children those same Memories we so richly enjoy that they too may enjoy the same niceties of life we have been so blessed with.

Class Prophecy

In the near and distant future, we do prophesy that our prophecies will prove to be false. Any resemblance to the future success of our classmates is strictly coincidental. In our search for knowledge we have over-burdened our overworked minds and have decided that the following are---MOST LIKELY

To Be Old Maids,

Barbara Bartkiw, Nancy Dickie, Grace DiNanno, Carole Hunkins, Shirley Downey, Corrine Messina, Sandra Ferguson, Kathleen Flynn, Catherine LaFauci, Elaine Julian, Georgann Biratelli, Irene Pagliuca, Janice Corbett, Carolyn Baldasro, Rita McMahan, and Marilyn Miller.

ACTIVITIES

Library Staff

Under the very able guidance of Miss Celeste Lambert, our Library Staff enjoyed its finest year.

Besides aiding the student body with the fundamentals of the library, this group creates a great amount of interest within their own group concerning the care of the library and its books.

Each member spends at least one period a week in assisting in the repairing and mending of books, and checking delinquent holders of books.

By no means is it all work and no play as is shown by our social gatherings.

Our most successful endeavor is our Annual Book Fair so looked forward to by the student body.

Lyceum

The Everett High School Lyceum, under the direction of Mr. Thomas A. Sullivan, was founded over sixty-five years ago by the late Wilbur J. Rockwood, and is the oldest such organization in the state.

An intensive training in the art of effective speaking and the fundamentals of debate is the aim of this club. Much practical experience is gained through participation in oral reading groups and inter club debates.

The Boston College Prize Debate is the outstanding event of the year.

Italian Night

Under the able direction of Mr. Victor E. DeRubeis the Italian Club of Everett High School completed its 23rd successful year. We seniors feel that it was a year of great achievement.

On October 19, 1960 we started our year with a visit to the Italian Fair held at Jordan Marsh Company. The Carabinieri did not fool us.

The new members of the club met with us for the first time and after proper introductions and a word of explanation and welcome we all sat down to an informal luncheon.

Our first major event took place on the night of December 7, 1960 at a parents' night at which time we met and entertained sixty parents who were welcomed by Mr. Collins and Mr. Cantalupi. Mr. DeRubeis demonstrated with a class the new technique of the audio-lingual method of teaching languages. The first year class responded with enthusiasm and we were all greatly impressed with the system. After the class a very excellent collation of Italian cold cuts was served, and all went home happy.

On February 3, 1961, we all took part in "Una Serata Italiana". This annual affair has become the unforgettable evening for seniors in the club.

Goldoni's "L'Osteria della poste" was presented by the third year club. Rinaldo DiLoreto as the Marchese won the heart of Marie Giordano as the Contessina. Joe Sordillo as the Tenente tried hard to keep Rinaldo a bachelor to no avail. Sylvia Alberti as the Contessa made sure her daughter chose the right man. Corine Raduazzo as the maid drew oh's and ah's from the audience.

The second play of the evening was written especially for the second year class by Mr. DeRubeis. Joe Gravini portrayed a father of five beautiful daughters; Camille DeAngellis, Delanne Puopolo, Genevieve Perillo, Carol DeFilippo, and Cynthia Rossi. After this performance, Joe should never forget how to handle his own daughters judging by the way he pulled his hair and screamed and schemed. Lorraine DiAngelo showed how she would handle this husband and five daughters in real life with a great performance. Mr. Aldo's sisters created a furore of laughter in the persons of Georganne Birarelli and Marion DeTillio.

The musical portion pleased all and we shall always hum "Bella Bimba", "La ci darem la mano" "Sei bella negli occhi" etc.

On March 23, 1961 we had our spring get-to-gether and saw the Italian movie "The Bicycle Thief." The Senior girls prepared the best sandwiches ever served.

The Season

Upon our return to school in the Fall of '60, all eyes were turned to our favorite pastime, football. The past few years have been rather hectic ones as far as the Crimson and Blue's football record has been concerned and this one did not promise too much. Graduation and a scarcity of real lettermen plus the early season injuries of Billy Giuliano, Charlie Boy, and John Capuano tended to help our cause very little. However, a boy tends to grow in the summer, both physically and mentally, and we still had hopes.

Coach Sarno and his assistants worked hard to whip some semblance of a team into shape and presented the 1960 edition to the public by mid-September.

Our opening game was truly an eye-opener. Against a formidable Newton eleven we showed prospective talent and good ability. Capt. Rennie DiLoretto set a great example for the rest of the boys with his great line play. "Choo-choo" Boudreau roared up and down the field like a lion. A bright new light shone forth in the person of an unknown sophomore, Bobby Leo. The line as a whole showed promise and things were looking up. We won this one 26-20 and our start was made.

Against our next opponent, Weymouth, we started slowly but gained momentum as the game moved on. "Muscles" DiLoretto and "Waltz" MacKenzie tore big holes in the line to allow "Panda" Stallworth to roam all over the field. Leo again showed he was no "flash in the pan" as he aided greatly in our 24-12 victory.

Next came Quincy High. In the poorest exhibition of the season we did everything wrong and as a result we lost and there went our hopes for an undefeated season. We failed to untrack ourselves all day when necessary and were out-scored 16-14.

Arlington, pre-season favorites for a championship were next in line. We were not given a chance after last week. Our boys forgot to read the newspapers and in a complete reversal of form we pulverized them. In a very systematic manner we took their vaunted line apart. With Green at quarter back, Stallworth, Leo, Boudreau, and company ran over, under, and around them. DiLoretto, Izaacs, Mattuchio, and Sciulla were bulwarks of strength all day. The final score was 22-6 in our favor.

Against a weak Medford team Coach Sarno cleared the bench after Leo had single handedly scored four touchdowns. This was ours 32-0.

Big and burly Somerville has always been a thorn in our side but not so this year. We saw "Wrecker" Romboli and Bill Altieri do a fine job in this one which we again won 32-0.

A highly touted Nashua, New Hampshire team, undefeated and untied, came the following week. Once again we were the underdogs. Reputations again meant nothing to us. We showed great power all day and moved at will until we got near their goal line. The result was we only scored once and failed to get the point after. We managed to stop them cold all day except for one lapse and they took advantage of this and scored. The game wound up a stalemate but was a moral victory for the Crimson in this 6-6 tie.

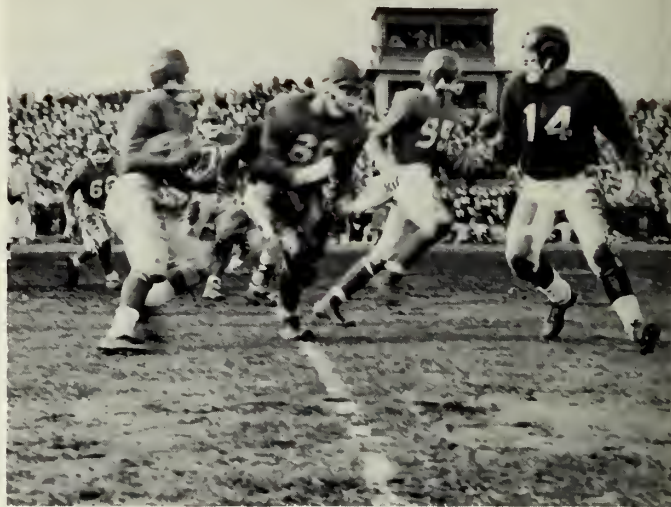

Against Malden our boys were tired after their hard game of the previous week and could not collect their defenses to function in the usual manner. Our offense was working in good shape as we went down to a 28-16 defeat.

Thanksgiving Day and a feast! We journeyed to Chelsea to pluck a big fat turkey and did just that to the tune of 20-6. This made our unpredictable season a success. Our rivalry with our neighbors has always been great and this was no exception. To name an individual "great" in this game would be an injustice to all who played so well.

Hats off to a great leader in Capt. Rennie DiLoreto who unselfishly shared his captaincy with his senior players all season. To the team goes all the plaudits for a fine job well done. To those seniors who played their last games we say "you were the best". You carried on in true Everett style, clean, hard, and stimulating in keeping with tradition.

To Coaches Sarno, Romboli, and Leo we give our thanks for the many hours of fun and exciting afternoons as a result of your hard work and diligent teachings.

To all we say farewell. May your futures be as bright as your victories.

The Season

"Lack of height and inexperience will bother us". These were the words of Coach Putnam in a pre-season statement and truer words were never spoken. Games were lost which could have been won if we had that certain something which was lacking. As it turned out, ours was a mediocre season but an interesting one. To the coaches and to the players our hats are doffed in a gesture of congratulations for a job well done.

We blasted off to a decisive victory over Lowell by a score of sixty-nine to fifty-two. Captain Erickson and LaVerde put on a good exhibition of shooting with seventeen and sixteen points apiece. The team looked fair on defensive ability but did lack that height so necessary.

League favorite and highly touted Quincy was our next opponent and we rose to the expectations of all by upsetting the favorite by a score of sixty-six to fifty-three. Our boys fed Erickson all night long and he just couldn't miss as he scored twenty-two points. The entire team was at top speed and were up for this one.

Prosperity went to our heads after our win over Quincy and we proceeded to have a complete reversal of form against a very normal Medford team. We lost this by a score of sixty-six to forty-three. Scoring was spread out among all the boys with LaVede being high with twelve.

During the Christmas holidays we went north to Bangor, Maine, and took a pasting to the tune of sixty-six to forty-two in a very poorly played game.

Upon our return to league play we nosed out Revere in a real thriller fifty-three to fifty-one. Karp and Armando Leo excelled in this one and held the limelight with Jack Erickson.

A big, tall, experienced Malden team downed us in unquestioned fashion by a score of seventy-one to fifty-seven. Olson with fifteen points was a standout, with Leo and Erickson close behind.

Against North Quincy we returned to the win column in a close fifty-nine to fifty-three score. This was an interesting game with the outcome in doubt right up to the end. Green and Erickson were top men with nineteen and seventeen points each.

A fast breaking Weymouth club gave us all we could cope with. We managed to get a few points ahead and held on for dear life. We won by a score of sixty to fifty-four aided no end by Jack Erickson's twenty-six points.

Chelsea with a real big team that show real ability gave us a lesson to the tune of seventy-two to fifty-two. It has been some time since Chelsea has had a real outstanding team but this was their year. Green was the only one able to solve their defense as he came up with twenty-one points.

Against our old rival Somerville it was the usual battle of every past game. The lead see-sawed back and forth all night and the smoke of battle cleared we were on top by a score of fifty-six to fifty-four. Again it was Green with twenty one points as the Somerville team covered Erickson.

The second half league play opened with another win over Lowell seventy-nine to fifty with Erickson continuing his scoring by dropping in twenty-three points and Green and LaVerde thirteen and twelve.

Quincy caught up to us this time to take avenge for their only loss. In a reversal of form they trounced us sixty-one to forty-six.

Against Medford we did better than the previous meeting but still lost by a score of fifty-eight to fifty-five. This was a game that should have been ours but-----.

We licked Revere in the return bout by a score of seventy-six to seventy-two. This was a lesson in all offense and no defense. Erickson scored twenty-five, Green, twenty, and Nigro fourteen points.

Malden trounced us again by a score of seventy-six to fifty-eight as they towered over us and blocked our efforts.

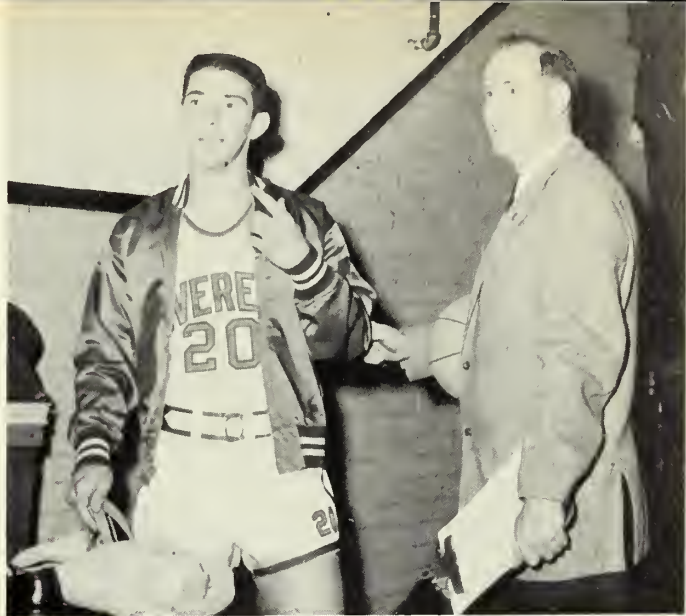

Against North Quincy we threw the game away in the closing minutes by a score of sixty-three to sixty. Again it was Erickson with twenty-three, followed by Green and LaVerde with fourteen and ten points.

The return game with Weymouth was a repetition of the previous meeting and we came out on top fifty-seven to forty-nine. Again it was Erickson leading the way with twenty-three points.

Chelsea was ripe for picking in our final match but we blew it in the final moments by a score of fifty-one to forty-eight. Green led the way with twenty-two points.

We closed out the season with Somerville in a blaze of glory by being the first team to beat Somerville twice in a season in the past ten years. Erickson and Green again led the assault on their hoop with nineteen points each.

The season has been interesting even if it did mark the first time in many years we did not make the tournament. To the players and coaches, our thanks for the many wonderful thrills and the exciting moments which do so much to make our stay in school more than just books.

The Season

Our second year of revived hockey activity found an improvement in the team over the previous year, even though the scores were not on the bright side in every instance. Coach Henry Schlegel worked hard and diligently in trying to whip together a representative team under very difficult practice conditions. There was a small nucleus of inexperienced talent left from the previous year and these boys did an outstanding job.

We started the season against a strong and experienced Don Bosco team and for a while it was nip and tuck all the way. Old Man experience however came to the front and combined with a few lapses we went down to our first defeat by a score of four to one. Nicolai, Feldhoff, Madden, and Captain Kimball were outstanding. Feldhoff, with an assist from Madden, scored Everett's lone goal.

Malden gave us a trouncing the following week to the tune of five to nothing. Everything we did went wrong and this was a game we wanted to forget in a hurry.

Veteran Quincy took advantage of our loose play and beat us three to nothing. We moved well in this game but never seemed to get those goals when needed. Donnelly scored our goal with the assist going to Madden and Ford.

We lost a heart-breaker to North Quincy in what seemed to be a sure win for us. We had them beaten and then the roof fell in. We blew our lead and in the closing seconds went down to a three to two defeat. Nicolai came up with his best game to date and, with assists from Feldhoff and Nickerson, scored two goals.

At last we had the sweet taste of victory. Revere was our first victim and it was no easy task. This was a real battle from start to finish in more ways than one. Penalties came thick and fast and were more prominent than goals. We won this one by a score of two to one with Nicolai and Hendrickson getting the goals.

Winning became a habit as we downed our old rival Chelsea in the next game. It was doubly grateful to beat our neighbors because it also gave us our first shutout of the season. Madden was our big gun with two goals on Madden's and Donnelly's assists.

As we moved into the second half of league play we were a better team and our spirits were up. We dropped a squeaker to Don Bosco when we should have won it. Nicolai scored our lone goal in this two to one loss.

We had been shutout by Malden in the first game but not so this time. Goals came thick and fast all night and the outcome was not decided until the final second. Malden emerged victorious by a four to three score but with a little luck we could have been the winners. Ford pulled the Hat Trick with three goals on three assists by Nicolai.

North Quincy proved to be a real tough nut to crack and after a real great game on both sides the game wound up a stalemate two to two. Feldhoff and Nicolai produced our goals on assists to each other.

In a postponed game from the first half we ran into league leading Christopher Columbus. Without a doubt they were our superiors all night and it was easily seen why they were undefeated. We suffered our second shutout of the season by a score of five to nothing.

Revere fell victim to us in the return match by a score of two to one. Again we proved that we could stand up to the rough and tumble play of a hard hitting team. Nicolai and Madden scored with the assists going to Ford, Madden, and Nicolai.

Our return game with Chelsea saw us in top form and we came up with another victory by a score of three to nothing. The scoring in this game was split up among Russell, Donnelly, and Ford with assists going to Madden, Donnelly, and Feldhoff.
